as the trademark licensee

The regulation for the swiss+cotton trademark, dated September 20, 2016, forms an integral part of the licence agreement. Both parties are entitled to give three months notice to terminate this agreement with effect from the end of a calendar year. Notice must be given by registered letter and is valid if it is sent on the last possible day by the person who gives notice (date as postmarked).

On termination of this agreement, the licensee immediately loses the right to make any further use of the trademark.

On signing this agreement, the company undertakes to comply with the provisions of the regulation and to respect the stipulated criteria.
